—»»— BARTENDER OF THE MONTH —««—

David “Xander” Stucken comes to us from the far west – Bar Lafayette in Perth. Xander hails from a family in the spice trade giving him a natural flair for flavour along with some pep in his step.

He’s a total geek, and happy to spend hours talking about the better aspects of unusual vermouths or bitters. His bar boasts the largest cocktail list in WA and is well worth a visit.

Xander is also the founder of an initiative to train and mentor young bartenders – Young Bloods, ensuring the next generation of WA bartenders will go from strength to strength.

Xander’s drinks are simple but utterly delicious. From tiki masterpieces like the White Bay to the bitter and boozy Ohh Look! Another Aperitif! There is something for everyone.

WINE

IF YOU'RE NOT IN THE MOOD FOR SPIRITS OUR STAFF WILL BE DELIGHTED TO HELP YOU NAVIGATE OUR SELECTION.

This month we're doing a wine takeover with our friends from Unico Zelo. We are delighted to support Brendan and Laura Carter, two young wine makers and distillers who met while studying viniculture when they were 19 and are now on their fifth vintage with label Unico Zelo. They talk the talk of sustainable viniculture, with minimal intervention but they're actually walking the walk with their second label Harvest. Harvest is a co-op in which the growers submit fruit, Unico Zelo makes wine for free and they share the proceeds, 50% going to the farmer and 50% is kept in a trust account, and given to growers as interest free loans to convert their vineyards to more sustainable practices and grapes more suited to the area.

We'll definitely raise a glass to that.

— BOILERMAKERS —

CRAFT BEER ACCOMPANYING SPIRITS IS AN UNASSUMING UNION THAT IS FAR TOO OFTEN OVERLOOKED. A REWARDING BOILERMAKER EXPERIENCE SHOULD ALLOW EACH BEVERAGE TO SING ITS OWN TUNE. WHEN COMBINED, THOSE SINGLE VOICES FORM A CHOIR CROONING IN PERFECT UNISON. IN THESE CONSIDERED MATCHINGS THE WHOLE IS GREATER THAN THE SUM OF ITS PARTS. THE RESULT IS A JOURNEY OF DISCOVERY.
